

Services to our clients:

Juvenile Restitution

Teen Court

Psychological Assessments

□

Juvenile Restitution – The program allows offenders to provide monetary and/or community service restitution for crimes committed. Youth between the ages of seven and fifteen are referred to the program in response to an adjudication order from Juvenile Court.

Teen Court – Teen Court is an alternative system of justice wherein first time offenders are tried by their peers for misdemeanor offenses. The program serves middle school and high school aged youth.

To volunteer for Teen court, download and complete the 'Y outh application '.

Psychological Assessments – Funding pays for psychological evaluations required by the juvenile court counselors to assist the counselors in determining the appropriate resources required for youth involved with the Department of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention.

Services to the public:

Adventure Challenge Ropes Course

Adventure Challenge Ropes Course – A ropes course is series of individual and group physical challenges that require a combination of teamwork skills and individual commitment. The challenges are designed to increase the levels of trust, cooperation and communication within the group. It is available for all age groups.